

Privacy Policy

Association Benefit Services understands that earning and maintaining your trust and confidence are vital to maintaining a healthy and prosperous long term relationship. We are committed to protecting your personal information and the personal information of association members. We will only use your personal information for the purpose of doing business with you.

We have safeguards in place to protect your personal information. Our associates are trained to respect your information and securely maintain it. Your information is shared with associates when it is required to facilitate the job of processing and servicing your business. We also share your information with third parties which we have contracted with to provide services on your behalf. These parties may only use your information to perform those services. They are required to keep your information safe and may not use it for their own marketing purposes. We will not share your information with any third party for marketing purposes and your personal information will never be sold to any party for any reason.

We also share your information as required by law and by regulatory authorities. This would include activities like routine audits and required tax filings.

Any questions regarding our Privacy Policy should be directed to:

info@associationbenefitservices.com